JULY 2024

SIVAN—TAMMUZ

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

Mazel Tov to Clara Rudnick on the recent celebration of her 100th birthday. We were pleased to visit with her son Marvin from California at kiddish this past month. We deeply appreciate Clara's involvement with Shaaray Tefila over the years, and especially her contributions to holocaust education.

Thanks to all of you for your well-wishes during Cher's recent hospitalization. Knowing of your concern was a great comfort to us during that stressful time. Thanks also to those who helped with services and kiddishes during Shavuot.

As many of you know, Cher and I will be studying in New York City during much of July and early August. Many of you have stepped up to assist with services and kiddishes during that time. We are blessed at Shaaray Tefila to have so many capable and involved congregants who keep our shul active as a place of prayer, song, study, and community. We plan to give you all a full report upon our return.

Mark Hoffman

Thank you to all who prepared, helped set foods out, assisted with clean-up, washed dishes and more during June. Thanks to: Cher & Mark, Joe Hoffman, Bill Brender, Ellen Katz, Lorraine & Dr. Syd Hochman, Elaine & Salomon Charhon, Herb Levin, Nancy & Peter Kudan, Susan & David Matzner, Tali Klausner & Dan Shaham, Pinchas Shabat, Dr. Ephraim Back, Pat Balasuyria, Judy & Allan Korot, Patti and Shmuel Stern and others. Your time and all you do are much appreciated!

Please let Katie, Francine, Ellen or me know your availability to help with July Oneg/Kiddush. Cher & Mark will be away and I will be in Miami at the end of June until July 3rd for another cousin's Memorial Service. I will appreciate any and all assistance in July.

Special Happy Birthdays and Anniversaries to Sandra Smith, Mark Paltrowitz, Miriam Frank, Marianne & Mark Aronson and Diane & David Gellman.

There will be no Congregation Shaaray Tefila/ Temple Beth El combined Family Service in July.

Although I was away, I heard Shavuot services were well attended and services were conducted by Pinchas, Dan and Shmuel on Wednesday and Mark and others on Thursday. Thank you for being there for the Shavuot Services on Wednesday, June 12th followed by a kiddush sponsored by Congregation Shaaray Tefila and services with Yizkor on Thursday, June 13th followed by a Chevra Kadisha sponsored kiddush. Many thanks to Ellen for the Blintze Soufflé, to all who donated other foods and to all who helped in many ways.

Check out the gift shop for Shabbat, Birthday or Anniversary, Bat/Bar Mitzvah or other gift needs. Contact me at 518-222-5624 or Katie 518-792-4945 with any questions.

Save the date for the annual community picnic on Sunday, August 11th. See the special flyer for more information.

GREATER GLENS FALLS HEBREW SCHOOL

What a wonderful year it has been for our Hebrew School! I am overjoyed by the accomplishments of our students in Hebrew and Judaic Studies but also thrilled by the special guests and volunteers who have enhanced our program. One of the earliest programs in our year was welcoming Torah Scribe Julie Seltzer to teach our students of the intricacies of writing or repairing a Torah and what special symbols within the text mean. The students were also able to practice the work Julie does by utilizing a Torah scribe's tools to create Hebrew letters. We came full circle at the end of the year by welcoming in Rob and Josh Burchfield to teach us how to braid and bake challahs with our students as well as Mike Pletman who created a musical, camp-like atmosphere for our students using the power of dance, song and Ruach or spirit!

Throughout the year we honored our students and families with family services, and enjoyed some of our favorite programs including our annual Chocolate Passover Seder, an ice cream Tu B'Shvat seder, using our creative skills to make our own artistic challah plates and covers. Our wonderful teachers Deby, Sharla and Leah worked hard on not only Hebrew education but holiday and Israel programming!

We are excited to celebrate Eric Ozanne's Bar Mitzvah this summer and congratulate him on graduating Hebrew School. We are thrilled that he will stay on with us as a teen aide.

Our Hebrew School had our largest group of teen aides in years (a total of six) and they regularly helped out by assisting teachers and myself with organizational projects as well as setting-up and cleaning-up whatever materials or food were needed during the Hebrew School morning. We want to thank Sara Rice in particular for helping the teens paint and furnish their new teen room within the Hebrew School as well as the several community members who offered to donate items for the room.

I must not forget to thank Katie Weaver who helps us behind the scenes throughout the year with forms and paperwork, copies, budgets, and calendars, even offering wonderful suggestions for our program. She is always here for us!

Another special thanks goes to our school committee chaired by Rebecca Spraragen and Mike Pletman for being a sounding board and for volunteering and helping with our family services and end-of-year event.

I hope that everyone has a wonderful summer and please stay in touch! More news to come soon as I begin planning for an exciting new school year. It will be filled with Jewish education, innovative new programs, themed family services and some fundraisers - all on the horizon. Please enjoy a selection of pictures from our school year!
